

CORRECTIONS

^{4 MAY}
In a list of persons mentioned in last Saturday's installment of the edited transcripts of White House conversations about Watergate, The New York Times erroneously listed H. Chapman Rose as a lawyer for four of the original defendants in the Watergate break-in. Mr. Rose has served in the Watergate matter only as an unpaid legal consultant to the White House and President Nixon.

●
In the "Votes in Congress" chart in the city edition of The Times last Saturday, Senator Jacob K. Javits was recorded incorrectly as having voted against no-fault automobile insurance. He voted for the bill.

MAY 8 1974

NIT