

Radio to Cover Hearings

National Public Radio, the network for 140 noncommercial stations, has announced that it will provide live gavel-to-gavel coverage of the House Judiciary Committee's open sessions on the impeachment hearings, which are expected to resume May 21. In New York, the coverage will be carried on the municipal station, WNYC, AM.

4/10/74

WNYC