Colson Explicates

Idol Worshipping

OWOSSO, Mich., May 23 (AP)—Former White House aide Charles Colson today cautioned government leaders to avoid worshipping false gods.

Speaking at a prayer breakfast, Colson said to achieve gratification of one's ego is to worship a false god.

He said modern history's great problems, such as Watergate, have been caused by men driven by an excess of personal pride and ambition.

Colson, who is charged in the break-in of the offices of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist, repeated an assertion of his innocence of any involvement.
