

CORRECTIONS

JUN 5 1974

An article by United Press International in some editions of The New York Times of May 29 reported erroneously that Senator Hugh Scott, Republican of Pennsylvania, had opposed giving an additional $200-million to the Senate Watergate committee but had not voted against the action. Senator Scott voted for the appropriation; the position attributed to him was taken by Senator Robert C. Byrd, Democrat of West Virginia.