

BREAK-IN

Burglary at the offices of the Democratic National Committee in the Watergate complex — June 17, 1972

E. Howard Hunt Jr.
Former C.I.A. agent and White House consultant
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 30 months-8 years plus $10,000 fine
Free pending appeal

James W. McCord Jr.
Former security coordinator for the Committee for the Re-election of the President
Found guilty
Sentenced to 1-5 years
Free pending appeal

Virgilio R. Gonzalez
Miami locksmith, Cuban refugee
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 1-4 years
Released on parole

Eugenio R. Martinez
Cuban businessman, refugee
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 1-4 years
Released on parole

Frank A. Sturgis
Former marine
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 1-4 years
Free pending appeal

Bernard L. Barker
Miami real estate broker, former C.I.A. agent
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 18 months-6 years
Free pending appeal

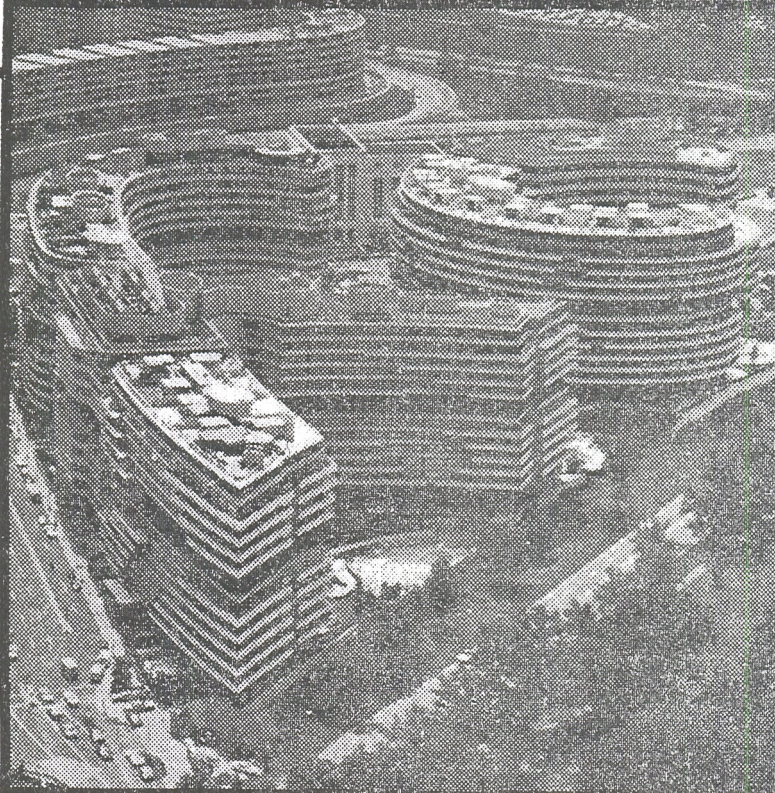

G. Gordon Liddy
Former White House, C.R.P.* and F.C.R.P.* aide
Found guilty
Sentenced to 6 years, 8 months-20 years
In prison

* Committee for the Re-election of the President and Finance Committee to Re-elect the President

Disposition of Key Watergate Court Cases

Source: Watergate Special Prosecution Force

'DIRTY TRICKS'

Espionage and sabotage of rival contenders in the 1972 Presidential campaign

Donald H. Segretti
Former Treasury Department attorney
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 6 months
Released from prison

Dwight L. Chapin
Former Presidential appointments secretary
Found guilty
Sentenced to 10-30 months
Conviction appealed

CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS

Illegal corporate campaign contributions and charges of Federal job buying and selling or favored treatment

Herbert W. Kalmbach
Former personal attorney to the President
Pleaded guilty
Sentencing scheduled for today

15 other individuals and 13 corporations

I.T.T.

Activity in connection with charges of trading a $400,000 contribution for favorable antitrust action

Richard G. Kleindienst
Former Attorney General
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 1 month plus $100 fine
Sentence suspended

Ed Reinecke
California Lieutenant Governor
Indicted
Trial set for July 15, 1974

Shown above are most of the major figures in the Watergate scandal with brief notes on what has happened to them in various legal proceedings during the two years since the break-in. Specific charges against individuals are not listed. In another trial, unrelated to

COVER-UP

Alleged conspiracy among White House and re-election campaign aides to obstruct justice in the investigation of the Watergate burglary

John W. Dean 3d
Former counsel to the President
Pleaded guilty
Sentencing deferred

Jeb Stuart Magruder
Former C.R.P. deputy director
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 10 months-4 years
In prison

Frederick C. LaRue
Former White House and C.R.P. aide
Pleaded guilty
Sentencing deferred

Herbert L. Porter
Former C.R.P. aide
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 5-15 months
All but 30 days suspended
Released from prison

John D. Ehrlichman
Former chief domestic affairs adviser to the President
Indicted
Trial set for Sept. 9, 1974

H. R. Haldeman
Former White House chief of staff
Indicted
Trial set for Sept. 9, 1974

John N. Mitchell
Former Attorney General and C.R.P. director
Indicted
Trial set for Sept. 9, 1974

Gordon C. Strachan
Former Haldeman aide
Indicted
Trial set for Sept. 9, 1974

Kenneth W. Parkinson
Former C.R.P. attorney
Indicted
Trial set for Sept. 9, 1974

Robert C. Mardian
Former C.R.P. deputy manager
Indicted
Trial set for Sept. 9, 1974

PLUMBERS

Special secret investigation team in the White House accused of conspiracy against the rights of citizens, including Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist

Egil Krogh Jr.
Former Ehrlichman aide
Pleaded guilty
Sentenced to 2-6 years
All but 6 months suspended
In prison

Charles W. Colson
Former special counsel to the President
Pleaded guilty
Sentencing scheduled for June 21, 1974

John D. Ehrlichman
Indicted
Trial set for June 26, 1974

Bernard L. Barker
Indicted
Trial set for June 26, 1974

Eugenio R. Martinez
Indicted
Trial set for June 26, 1974

G. Gordon Liddy
Indicted
Trial set for June 26, 1974

The New York Times/June 17, 1974

Watergate, two former Nixon Cabinet members and campaign aides, John N. Mitchell and Maurice H. Stans, were acquitted of a charge that they tried to impede a Federal investigation of Robert L. Vesco, the financier, in return for a campaign contribution.