Most Israelis Hail Nixon; Some Cite Watergate Role

By JOHN HERBERS Special to The New York Times

JERUSALEM, June 16 - Is-|take up rael showered President Nixon with praise and cheers this af- Damascus, where he announced ternoon when he arrived fresh the resumption of diplomatic from conferences with Arab relations with Syria, which has leaders in three countries.

about the new American ini- Katzir's praise, President Nixon tiatives for friendship with Is- said that, "As I travel to narael's enemies, Government tions that over the past few leaders made every effort to years have been Israel's tradi-make the President welcome tional adversaries, I have been and the people turned out in glad to know that the people

However, he here in Israel, the first show that journey. That purpose is of hostility of his Middle East- the purpose of peace all over the ern journey — signs, held by world." some in the crowds, disparaging his role in the Watergate of several thousand, mostly affair.

"You are the first President blue and red hats, cheered as of the United States to visit the limousine carrying the two the state of Israel," President Presidents approached. The sun-Ephram Katzir told Mr. Nixon roof of the car had been opened I in a ceremony at Tel Aviv air-port. "You, personally, Mr. seen. The motorcade then moved President, have demonstrated through groves of olive trees in a singular manner your amity and into the city of Lydda and your constant readiness to where another big crowd was come to our assistance. We waiting. shall never forget that you They rode for 31 miles, stood with us in hours of grave past the Ramle Prison, where

The President was then past a Trappist monastery and driven crowds estimated by Israeli the mountains to the outskirts officials at more than 100,000, of Jerusalem. and to conferences with Govake up with the Americans. Mr. Nixon came here from been a bitter enemy of Israel. Despite some apprehensions In response to President large numbers to cheer him. of this nation understand, that encountered, they appreciate the purpose of

Outside the airport, a crowd youths wearing orange, yellow, opportunity and hope." through the valley of Latrun, into Jerusalem past lines of curious monks and into

Elaborate preparations had ernment officials who were been made for the Nixon visit. waiting with a long agenda of tough problems they wanted to Continued on Page 3, Column 1 No. Com had, been taken to a greater with Arab leaders. Israeli offidegree than for the visit of cials were said to be anxious degree than for the visit of thats were said to be analous former Chancellor Willy Brandt to hear further explanations of West Germany last year, for Mr. Nixon's reasons for power for

A group calling itself "the Ad Hoc Committee for the Im-peachment of Richard Nixon" was, denied a request to demonstrate against Mr. Nixon and had to hold its demonstration ment houses were draped with American flags. Children waved American and Israeli flags. But for the first time on his trip, there were the kind of signs that Mr. Nixon encounters almost everywhere he goes at home. Samples:

A Big Hand for Kissinger

"Remove All the Expletives," a reference An the Expletives, a reference to his Watergate transcripts; "You Can't Run From Justice," "Welcome Presi-dent Ford." And "We Are All Jew Boys." This was in refer-ence to reports which the Jew Boys. This was in refer-ence to reports, which the White House has denied, that Mr. Nixon made disparaging references to Jews in some of the tape recordings.

When the motorcade got to the King David Hotel, a crowd outside cheered the President, outside cheered the President, but cheered louder for Secre-tary of State Kissinger, who seemed delighted. He waved and smiled. Around the hotel, soldiers

Around the hotel, soldiers with guns and searchlights were visible on every roof as Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kissinger moved in to confer with Pre-mier Yitzhak Rabin and other officials officials.

It was not disclosed what ecific subjects were disspecific dis-

Continued From Page 1, Col. 7 cussed, other than that Mr. Kissinger briefed the Israeli of-Extensive security precautions ficials on the Nixon discussions former Chancellor Willy Brandt of West Germany last year. Streets were blocked for two hours before the arrival, caus-ing huge traffic jams. Mayor Teddy Kolek had dis-tributed a large stock of Ameri-can flags, along with a letter to citizens characterizing Mr. Nixon as "a great friend of Israel." Schools were closed for the occasion.

Nixon Visits Mrs. Meir

Mr. Nixon paid a visit to former Premier Golda Meir, along with Mr. Kissinger, United States Ambassador Kenneth B. Keating and Premier had to note its demonstration Rabin. in a park before the President's arrival. When the motorcade arrived in Jerusalem, the streets were teening with people. Apartgrandchildren watched from second-floor windows as the > limousines pulled up. The meeting lasted more than one hour. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Nixon and members of the presidential party were guests at a state dinner at the Parliament building.

Mr. Kissinger will leave the presidential trip tomorrow to attend the meeting in Ottawa attend the meeting in Ottawa of foreign ministers of the North Atlantic Treaty Organiza-tion. President Nixon, after a round of further talks and cere-mony here, will depart for Jor-den the last ston on his Middle. dan, the last stop on his Middle-East trip.

Possible Portugal Talk

Ronald L. Ziegler, the White Ronald L. Ziegler, the White House press secretary, said that Mr. Nixon would probably confer with President António de Spinola of Portugal in the Azores, where Mr. Nixon plans to stop overnight Tuesday be-fore returning to Washington. Mr. Ziegler said that General Spinola had requested the Spinola had requested the meeting.

GIVE SUMMER TO A CHILD. THE FRESH AIR FUND.