

Notes on People byline, Albin Krebs

and Richard C. Wilbur to be a judge of the United States Tax Court.

In an interview in the July issue of McCall's magazine, Charles G. Rebozo, President Nixon's close friend, observes that "public relations for the White House hasn't been very good," and also that "inwardly, the President has got to be disappointed in some of the men he had under him." Of Mr. Nixon's tax problems, in connection with properties bought with Mr. Rebozo's help, Mr. Rebozo says: "He has never cared about money in his whole life. . . . In that innocent mind of his, he left his tax work for others to do because he was working on world problems."

minated half a century of restoration work done on the celebrated Gothic structure. The great cathedral was severely damaged by the Germans in World War I.

The chapel, in the most ancient part of the cathedral, is a lateral one at the very end of the central nave. The three windows depict the life of Abraham, devotions to the Virgin Mary and the prophets, and the links of the kings of France with their coronation cathedral.

NYTimes JUN 18 1974

The No. 2 man on President Nixon's Watergate legal defense team, J. Fred Buzhardt, Jr., remains in "serious condition" but is recovering from a heart attack he suffered last Thursday, a White House spokesman said yesterday. The 50-year-old Mr. Buzhardt has been moved out of the intensive care unit of Fairfax Hospital in Falls Church, Va., a Washington suburb. He'll be away from the White House for at least two months.