Fund-Raiser's Sentence Cut

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 20 (AP)—A Federal judge today cut in half the one-year prison sentence imposed on Larry Williams, former fund-raiser for Senator Edward J. Gurney, Republican of Florida. United States District Judge Charles R. Scott's brief order stated no reason for his action. Mr. Williams who pleaded guilty to channeling a bribe to a housing official, last week that his term be shortened because he expects time as a Government witness in trials.
