

ERVIN PANEL BARS ENDING SUBPOENA

Won't Drop Bid for Data on Rebozo and Nixon Brothers

By JOHN M. CREWDSON
Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, June 20 —

The Senate Watergate committee declined yesterday to quash its subpoenas for some of the personal financial records of Charles G. Rebozo, President Nixon's friend, and the President's two brothers, Donald and Edward.

However, both Senator Sam J. Ervin Jr., Democrat of North Carolina, the committee chairman, and Senator Howard H. Baker, Jr., Republican of Tennessee, the vice chairman, said there was little chance that any of the three men would be cited for contempt of Congress for their refusal to comply with the subpoenas.

Herbert W. Kalmbach, until recently Mr. Nixon's personal lawyer and who was sentenced this week to six to 18 months in prison for 1972 campaign fund-raising violations, has testified that Mr. Rebozo admitted privately having given the President's brothers and members of the White House staff part of a $100,000 "campaign contribution" he received from an agent of Howard R. Hughes, the billionaire industrialist.

"Our train has pulled out of the station," Senator Baker said in explaining that the focus of the Watergate investigation had moved from the Senate to the House Judiciary Committee, which is now considering the impeachment of the President.

Both Senators said they were pleased at the progress made thus far by the committee's majority and minority staffs in agreeing on a final version of what promises to be a voluminous account of the panel's investigation.

The report will cover the investigations of the Watergate break-in and cover-up, campaign financing, "dirty tricks" played on Democratic Presidential candidates, the milk case and the Rebozo matter.

Senator Ervin has said from the beginning of the Watergate committee's public hearings a year ago that the panel's purpose was to recommend legislation to deal with campaign abuses it uncovered.

He repeated yesterday that the final report, portions of which are being circulated to committee members, would include no findings of guilt or innocence because that was "not our function."

Committee sources said that a section on the involvement of President Nixon in the Watergate affair had been written and would be included in the chapter dealing with the cover-up.

In addition to the main committee report, at least two members, Senators Baker and Lowell P. Weicker, Republican of Connecticut, are considering releasing reports of their own.

Senator Baker's report concerns the involvement of the Central Intelligence Agency in the Watergate case, and committee sources have said the chief impediment to its disclosure is the insistence of the C.I.A. that much of the material gathered by his staff is classified.

GIVE PLEASURE.
GIVE TO THE FRESH AIR FUND.