

'Watchdog' over presidency
predicted

6-23-74

SF
EXAM

SEATTLE — Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, says the Senate Watergate Committee report to be issued Tuesday will call for a permanent watchdog to oversee future presidential elections.

Inouye said Friday the watchdog idea is one of many recommendations in the report.

He told a Chamber of Commerce luncheon that the report will not offer any conclusions on President Nixon's role in the Watergate affair.