

Nixon's

Reports on

TV Here

San Francisco's three major network television stations will carry live telecasts of President Nixon's speech to the Russian people today and his report to the American people on his Russian visit tomorrow.

The speech to the Russian people will be shown at 9 a.m. and will be aired by KPIX (Channel 5), KRON (Channel 4) and KGO (Channel 7) until its conclusion.

The President's second talk, which will be given upon his arrival at Loring Air Force Base in Caribou, Me., will begin at 4:30 p.m. tomorrow. All stations have said that they will carry his return for 30 minutes.
