

Nixon Spends

Fourth of July

In Key Biscayne

Key Biscayne

President Nixon spent a quiet Fourth of July holiday in seclusion at his Florida home, resting and relaxing after his summit journey to Moscow.

Though he arrived here at midnight Wednesday after a speech-making stop in Maine, aides reported the President at his desk at 8 a.m. yesterday.

Mr. Nixon settled down for a four-day holiday stay, accompanied by Mrs. Nixon and greeted by his Florida friend C. B. (Bebe) Rebozo.

Associated Press
