

JUL 18 1974

CBS Asks Live Coverage

Arthur R. Taylor, the president of CBS Inc., urged the leaders of Congress yesterday to allow live airing of impeachment proceedings as a matter of special importance, without regard to the larger question of permitting wider live coverage of Congress in general, The Associated Press reported. All three major networks previously asked the House Judiciary Committee to open its hearings.