

UPI Telephoto

The Prayer March

Carrying flags and placards proclaiming the members of Congress for whom they are praying, about 350 supporters of President Nixon headed for the capitol steps in Washington yesterday. There they began a 72-hour fast and prayer session. For the story, see Page 9.