

Rebozo Suit Dismissal Agreed To

Lawyers for C. G. (Bebe) Rebozo have agreed to the dismissal of a lawsuit they filed seeking to block subpoenas issued for Rebozo's bank records by the Senate Watergate committee.

Rebozo, a close friend of President Nixon, had been the subject of a committee probe into the handling of a $100,000 campaign contribution by billionaire Howard Hughes.

This month the committee told U.S. District Court Judge John Lewis Smith Jr. that its power to enforce its subpoenas had expired on June 30. Rebozo's attorney, Alan Greer, agreed to have Smith dismiss the case without prejudice, which would allow the suit to be filed again if the subpoenas are ever revived.
