

Article IV and Roll-Call on It

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, July 30—Following is the text of the proposed Article IV of impeachment offered to the House Judiciary Committee today by Representative John Conyers Jr., Democrat of Michigan.

ARTICLE IV

In his conduct of the office of President of the United States, Richard M. Nixon, in violation of his constitutional oath faithfully to execute the office of President of the United States and to the best of his ability to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and in disregard of his constitutional duties to take care that the laws be faithfully executed, on and subsequent to March 17, 1969, authorized, ordered and ratified the concealment from the Congress of the facts and the submission to the Congress of false and misleading statements concerning the existence, scope and nature of American bombing operations in Cambodia in derogation of the power of the Congress to declare war, to make appropriations and to raise and support armies and by such conduct warrants impeachment and trial and removal from office.
