

Plan for U.S. To Pay Nixon's Legal Expenses

Washington

Senator Lloyd Bentsen said yesterday he will introduce legislation if necessary to have the federal government pay President Nixon's legal expenses in connection with impeachment.

The President "should not have to seek charity or call on wealthy friends," the Texas Democrat said in a Senate speech.

Associated Press