

WXPost AUG 8 1974

Abplanalp Stays

In Nixon Corner

Despite the virtual collapse of his public support, President Nixon retains the friendship of Robert H. Abplanalp, the millionaire aerosol valve maker who aided Mr. Nixon in buying his San Clemente home.

Briefed last night at his Bronxville, N.Y. home, Abplanalp, sounding dejected, said, "I still support him." Asked if he continues to see the President, Abplanalp said he saw him four or five weeks ago in Key Biscayne, where Mr. Nixon has a home.