Notes on People Friedheim, Penta

A principal spokesman for the Department of Defense during much of the war in Vietnam, Jerry W. Friedheim, is resigning to become spokesman and Congressional lobbyist for Amtrak, the public corporation that runs the country's passenger rail lines.

Mr. Friedheim, whose present title is Assist ant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs, went to work in the Pentagon in 1969, following five years as an aide to Sen-ator John G. Tower, the Tex-as Republican. Previously, he had worked for United Press International and The Assochina. His resignation has not been formally accepted by the White House, and there was no indication yesterday who would succeed him. .

International and The Asso-ciated Press. In the first Nixon Ad-ministration, Mr. Friedheim gamely defended some of the most controversial military decisions of the war in Indo-china china.

A back injury suffered by Bette Davis during a rehear-sal Aug. 27 has delayed from Sept. 23 to Oct. 4 the Phil-adelphia opening of the new Broadway-bound musical "Miss Moffatt." Miss Davis's injury, diagnosed as lower back strain, caused cancel-lation of the show's stand in Baltimore, scheduled for Sept. 9-21.

Although Miss Davis is in traction in Harkness Pavilion, Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center, hsi has not pre-vented her from working with her director, Joshua Logan, and members of the cast of "Miss Moffatt," which is based on "The Corn Is Green," a Davis screen ve-hicle in 1949. Her therapy is expected to extend through Friday Friday.

Friday. NY TIMES SEP 11 1974 A Federal judge in Los An-geles turned down a bid by Howard R. Hughes to set aside a verdict in which his former chief aide won a slander suit. Robert Maheu, a former Federal Bureau of Investigation agent, had sought $17-million in dam-ages from the millionaire in-dustrialist, but a jury on July 1 deferred until Oct. 1 the second stage of the case, in which the exact amount of damages will be set. United States District Court Judge Harry Pregerson has now rejected five mo-tions to have the verdict set tions to have the verdict set aside.

Thousands of City College alumni will no doubt be