

New Watergate

'Surprises'

Predicted

Chicago

The former minority counsel to the House Judiciary Committee said yesterday that Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski has White House tapes not yet made public that will provide "surprises" about Watergate.

Albert Jenner said the tapes were not received by the Judiciary Committee and were obtained by Jaworski after the Supreme Court ruling on executive privilege.

The tapes contain damaging evidence against Watergate defendants but do not implicate any additional persons, Jenner said.

Associated Press