Cover-Up Trial W itness List Disclosed

By George Lardner Jr. Washington Post Staff Writer

Most of the government's witnesses at the Watergate cover-up trial were listed pub-Watergate licly yesterday for the first time.

Defense lawyers for former Attorney General John N. Mitchell disclosed 26 of the names in court pleadings filed with U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica.

Meanwhile, Supreme Court Justice William J. Brennan refused a new request for a delay of the Oct. 1 trial by lawyers for former White House chief of staff H.R. (Bob) Haldeman.

Haldeman,s petition was submitted yesterday morning to Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, but it was referred to Brennan. Burger has been hospitalized with injuries suf-fered in a bicycle accident.

Brennan also denied a request for a postponement by another cover-up trail defendant, former White House aide Gordon C. Strachan.

Haldeman had asked that the trial be held up until the Supreme Court could rule on his contention that the Watergate grand jury was illegally constituted when it returned the cover-up indictment last March 1.

Strachan asked for a delay until he can seek Supreme Court review of his claims Court review of his claims that the indictment against him was tainted by evidence that he himself supplied to government prosecutors after last burst of appeals, Mitch-ell's lawyers handed Judge Sirica a barrage of proposed questions for prospective trial jurors. The inquiries included a partial list of the govern-ment's witnesses as well as those Mitchell might call in his defense.

Watergate prosecutors indicated they had more than 40 witnesses whom they plan to call.

Among them are:
• Former CIA CIA director Richard Helms, assistant CIA director Vernon Walters and former FBI director L. Patrick Gray, all of whom were involved in an alleged White House effort to use the CIA in limiting the original Water-gate investigation.

• Former White House and 1972 Nixon campaign aides John W. Dean III, Jeb Stuart Magruder and Frederick C. LaRue, all of whom already
