NYTimes

1

2 1 1974 NEW YORK TIMES, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1974

Nixon's Physician John Charles Lungren

Bv ROBERT A. WRIGHT Special to The New York Times

LONG BEACH, Calif., Sept. 23-Dr. John C. Lungren became the man in the middle today, a key figure in the dispute over access to Richard M. Nixon. Like the former President, whom

President, whom he has served as personal physi-cian since 1952, Dr. Lungren, guards his pri-Man in the News

Dr. Lungren, guards his pri-vacy. He has declined to speak to the press since the announcement last week that he would treat Mr. Nixon for phlebitis at the Memorial Hospital Medical Center here starting today. starting today.

The 58-year-old Dr. Lun-gren, an internist and cardi-ologist described by friends and associates as a serious, dedicated man, is active in medical societies and at the hospital, with Notre Dame football apparently his pri-mary nonprofessional interest mary nonprofessional interest.

With his wife, the former Loraine Youngberg of Chi-cago, a former Powers model, he is socially prom-inent in Long Beach. He worked in Mr. Nixon's cam-paigns for the Senate in 1950 and in the campaign of Beb paigns for the Senate in 1950 and in the campaign of Rob-ert H. Finch, former Lieuten-ant Governor of California and Mr. Nixon's first Secre-tary of Health, Education and Welfare. Dr. Lundgren was intro-duced to Mr. Nixon in 1952 by Jack Drown, a Long Beach businessman. Mr. Drown suggested that Dr. Lungren be appointed cam-paign physician for Mr. Nix-on's Vice-Presidential bid, and the doctor served in that and the doctor served in that capacity in all of Mr. Nix-

In May, 1973, on a visit to his alma mater, the University of Notre Dame, Dr. Lungren told reporters that his medical files on Mr. Nixon

on's subsequent campaigns through 1968.

had been ransacked. John Charles Lüngren was born April 27, 1916, in Sioux City, Iowa. He received a Bachelor of Science degree Bachelor of Science degree from Notre Dame in 1936 and his Doctor of Medicine degree from the University of Pennsylvania Medical School in 1942. He was an infantry battalion surgeon in Normandy and other Euro-pean campaigns in World War II, and was awarded a Purple Heart and four battle stars.

stars. Dr. Lungren took his resi-dency at Los Angeles County Hospital, University of South-ern California, and then joined the Memorial Hospital staff.

Active at Notre Dame

Dr. Lungren has been the Finch family physician for 10 years, and Mr. Finch says the families are close.

the families are close. Mr. Finch described his friend as being "so busy pro-fessionally that he doesn't carry a jovial manner." But Mr. Finch said the Lungren family was "extraordinarily warm and close-knit." The Lungrens have three sons and four daughters from the warm and close-knit." The Lungrens have three sons and four daughters, from the teens to the 30's in age. At Notre Dame Dr. Lun-gren was a member of the Garman Club and manager of the basketball team. He has been active in school affairs as a fund-raiser and in 1972 was president of the alumni association.

07

United Press International Guards his privacy

Dr. Lungren interrupted his Long Beach pratcice to do post-graduate work in cardiology. Since 1955, he has been associated clinical professor of medicine at thhe University of California, Los Angeles

Dr. Lungren has been treating Mr. Nixon for phle-bitis since his resignation from the Presidency and return to San Clemente, and may be a decisive voice in Mr. Nixon's availability for court appearances in forth-coming Watergate - related trials coming Watergate - related trials. R.J. Munzer, chairman of Petrolane Gas Service, Inc., a neighbor and close friend, describes Dr. Lungren as "thoughful and scholarly." "He takes life seriously," Mr. Munger said. "He is dedi-cated and tends to see things in black and white. He knows what he believes in."