

Crime Tax

SEP 30 1974

w. fos

To the Editor,

I suggest legislation for a 100 per cent Federal crime gains tax on income derived from exploiting a criminal act. Income derived will include fees for writing memoirs, film rights and other monetary gains, such as honorariums. The tax should be applicable only to the perpetrator of the crime, his relatives, his associates and his employees.

NICHOLAS A. OSGAN

New York, Sept. 23, 1974