

KCBS, 11 a.m.

1 Oct 74

TAS <

The tedious ~~job~~ of jury selection is under way at the Watergate cover-up trial in Washington. One hundred and seventy prospective jurors were on hand when the court convened this morning; already 42 of them have been excused after questioning by Judge John Sirica. Thursday [3 Oct] the judge receives a status report on the health of former President Nixon, who has been subpoenaed to testify at the trial.

[Complete.]