TRSK

The tedious jet of jury selection is under way at the Watergate cover—up trial in Washington. One hundred and seventy prospective jurors were on hand when the court convened this morning; already 42 of them have been excused after questioning by Judge John Sirica. Thursday [3 Oct] the judge receives a status report on the health of former President Nixon, who has been subpoenaed to testify at the trial.

[Complete.]