Korff: Pardon Unsolicited

RABBI BARUCH KORFF

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 6 (AP) Korff, who at that time was [period. "He knew the country days before he resigned Aug. 9 Committee for Fairness to the that he was willing to go to Presidency, said he had been jail and did not want to be summoned by the Nixon fampardoned, Rabbi Baruch Korff ily to Washington Aug. 4 and will be laid to rest? was quoted as saying by to-day's Providence Journal-Bul-had been trying to convince letin.

The paper quoted Korff, who has organized a fund to help pay Mr. Nixon's legal fees, as saying that Mr. Nixon told him, "If they want to put to help help left them do help here left them do conversation."

alone with President Nixon on Aug. 6 in the Executive Office Building.

-President Nixon said three heading the National Citizens' would suffer," Korff said. the President and his family me behind bars, let them do it."

President Ford has since pardoned Mr. Nixon and he has accepted the pardon.

Wow if I do not resign that means I have to devote the to put me behind bars, let them do it. I don't want legislation and I don't want a parpeachment trial." lation and I don't want legislation and I don't want a partial final problems that might be ignored during that said.

Korff said he then asked Mr. Nixon: "Do you think that after toppling you your detractors will stop? That Watergate

"Then he said, 'You did quite that Mr. Nixon should not resign, the Journal-Bulletin said. I wish you would dissuade them from pressuring me not to resign.'

"I said, 'Your detractors