Hearing Put Off for Woman In Vesco Call Girl Case

In Vesco Call Girl Case LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17 (UPI) Government attorneys, with-out giving a reason, postponed indefinitely today the appear-ance of Alex Fleming before a Federal grand jury investigat-ing charges that she supplied call girls to Robert L. Vesco, the fugitive financier, in Costa Rica. Miss Fleming, also known as betty Alexander and Betty An-derson, had told United States Senate investigators that she supplied call girls to Mr. Vesco. Last month she was booked on charges of pimping and pandering following a local in-vestigation into prostitution, but that arrest was not con-cut with Mr. Vesco. Mr. Vesco fled the United States after he was indicted on charges stemming from a secret $200,000 contribution to former President Richard Mr. Nixon's 1972 campaign.

OCT 1 8 1974

NYTimes