

OCT 27 1974

SF Examiner

Nixon condition satisfactory

Associated Press

LONG BEACH — Former President Nixon continued to undergo treatment for phlebitis yesterday with no determination yet whether it will be effective enough to stave off surgery.

Dr. John Lungren said. "At this time Dr. Eldon Hickman, my surgical consultant, and I are satisfied with the progress former President Nixon is now exhibiting."
