

DEC 21 1974

Cut in Nixon Guard

Washington

The Secret Service said yesterday that it has removed its security agents from former President Nixon's Key Biscayne estate in Florida.

Agents remain on duty at San Clemente, where Mr. Nixon is recovering from phlebitis. Mr. Nixon will have a secret service guard the rest of his life.

The former President is reported considering selling Key Biscayne. He has not been there since he resigned the presidency in August.

United Press