SAN CLEMENTE, Calif.,
Jan. 1 — A spokesman said today that former President Richard M. Nixon was preparing a statement, to be released tomorrow, about the verdicts in the Watergate cover-up trial.

A spokesman at the Nixon's home here said the statement would be issued "around 8:30 or 9 o'clock" (Pacific time) by Ronald L. Ziegler, former White House press secretary who remains an adviser to Mr. Nixon. Mr. Ziegler was unavailable to reporters today.

It could not be learned whether Mr. Nixon, talked by telephone with any of his four former associates who were found guilty by the Washington jury.
