

Perjury Trial

Is Postponed

Los Angeles

The perjury trial of former Nixon aide John Ehrlichman, convicted last week of taking part in the Watergate coverup, was postponed yesterday until March 3.

Ehrlichman is charged with lying to a Los Angeles grand jury about the 1971 White House plumbers unit's break-in at the offices of the psychologist of Pentagon Papers figure Daniel Ellsberg.

Reuters

---