

Ziegler Lectures

New York

Ronald B. Ziegler, who served as press secretary to Richard M. Nixon throughout his presidency, will soon wrap up his work at San Clemente and begin a lecture tour for W. Colston Leigh, Inc., one of the nation's largest lecture bureaus.

The 35-year-old former advertising man, who early in his career delivered the spiel on a jungle-cruise boat as a Disneyland tour guide, has been booked for a number of lectures beginning in February at "a variety of well-known universities throughout the country," according to William Leigh, president of the agency. Leigh declined to name places or dates or talk about money.

New York Times