

WORLD NEWS
NYTimes JAN 10 1975
Dean and Kalmbach Take
Same Flight to Los Angeles

Special to The New York Times

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 9 — John W. Dean 3d arrived here today on a nonstop United Airlines DC-8 flight from Dulles International Airport near Washington.

The chief Watergate witness, wearing a brown suit and appearing wan, declined to answer reporters' questions.

Mr. Dean was escorted to a chauffeured private car, where he embraced his wife, Maureen, several times and then drove off.

Herbert W. Kalmbach, another Watergate witness, arrived on the same plane and was greeted by his wife and son.

A United Airlines spokesman said both men flew without reservations and in the first-class section of the plane, which touched down at approximately 2:45 P.M., 10 minutes late. The two men did not sit together, the spokesman said.