WASHINGTON, Jan. 10-The White House said today that the Government spent $367,000 to support former President Richard M. Nixon in the first three months after he resigned last Aug. 9.

Although the amount was well above the $200,000 appro-priated by Congress for a sixmonth transition period ending Feb. 9, Ron Nessen, the White House press secretary, said that much of the money had been spent on activities not covered by the transition legislation, which did not become law until Dec. 27. ad

The largest part of the money, for example, was $154,-000 in salaries and living expenses for staff members temporarily assigned to Mr. Nixon at San Clemente, Calif., but paid by Federal agencies. Another part, $83,000, was the es-timated cost rental value for Government-owned space to store Nixon records and gifts in Washington.

Disclosure by Ash

Mr. Nessen said the number of Government employes as-signed to Mr. Nixon until Feb. 9 had been reduced to 14.

The spending figures for Aug. 9 to Nov. 9, which were disclosed to reporters by Mr. Nessen in response to questions, were submitted Nov. 18 by Roy L. Ash, director of the Office of Management and Budget, to Representative Jack Brooks, Democrat of Texas. Mr. Brooks is chairman of a House Government Operations Sub-

Also listed was $20,000 for three Air Force courier flights from Washington to San Clemente to provide foreign policy briefings for Mr. Nixon Such briefings for former Presi-dents have long been the practice practice.

Mr. Ash's letter said the flights had been deferred as of Nov. 18, and Mr. Nessen said that subsequent briefings to Mr. Nixon had been made by 'secure communications" the Coast Guard station near San Clemente. Mr. Nessen said that Nixon

Mr. Nessen said that Nixon belongings, stored in the Exe-cutive Office Building next to the White House included col-lections of cartoons, pictures, model elephants and gavels and model elephants and gavels and sowns belonging to the former President's wife and daughters. He said that Rose Mary Woods, Mr. Nixon's secretary, I had office space in the building. Mr. Nessen said the former President could pick up thef objects acquired before he took office in 1969 and after he re-s signed Aug. 9. But he said that the recent law giving the Gov-ernment custody of Nixon tapes and documents was unclear on some points, that the General Services Administration was making an inventory of the ma-terial and that there would be terial and that there would be further discussions with Mr. Nixon's lawyers on the disposition of items acquired while Mr. Nixon was in office.
