NYTimes

FEB 6 1975

Notes on People Nixon Investigators in New Jobs

Three lawyers who headed major investigation involving the Nixon Administration have announced their departure from Government service have announced their depart-ure from Government service to enter private practices. John M. Doar, the former Board of Education president here who directed the House Judiciary Committee's im-peachment inquiry, has be-come a partner in Donovan, Leisure, Newton & Irvine at 30 Rockefeller Plaza. Mr. Doar, 53, a Princeton University and University of California Law School grad-uate, was the No. 2 exècutive of the Justice De-partment's civil-rights divi-sion under President Eisen-hower. In 1964 he was made chief of the division by President Johnson. Mr. Doar was director of the Bedford-Stuyvesant Community Cor-poration in Brooklyn from 1967 to 1973. A 35-year-old native of Manhattan, Terry F. Lenzner, a former Justice Department

A 35-year-old native of Manhattan, Terry F. Lenzner, a former Justice Department lawyer who spearheaded the Senate Select Watergate Committee's investigation of Committee's investigation of Charles G. Rebozo and the personal finances of former President Nixon, has become a partner in Truitt, Fabri-kant, Buchlin & Lenzner in Washington. He graduated from Harvard College, where he was captain of the foot-ball team, and from Harvard Law School and was former-ly director of the Office of Economic Opportunity's legal ly director of the Office of Economic Opportunity's legal services for the poor. George Beall, who as Unit-ed States attorney for Maryland headed the investi-gation that led to the resig-nation of Spiro T. Agnew as Vice President, will leave office in March to be a part-ner in the Baltimore law firm of Miles & Stockbridge. He of Miles & Stockbridge. He is 37, a graduate of Prince-ton and the University of Virginia Law School.

The first Israeli banknote to honor an American, or an individual woman, will carry a picture of Henrietta Szold, who in 1912 founded Hadas-sah, the American women's Zionist organization Aline Zionist organization. Aline Kaplan, national executive di-Aline Hadassah had been "totally unaware" that the Israeli Government had initiated the Government had imitated the tribute. Miss Szold, born in Baltimore in 1860, was one of this country's first social workers and in 1920 set up an American Zionist medical unit in Palestine. She died in 1945 at the Hadassah Hospi-tal on Mount Scopus and is tal on Mount Scopus and is buried on the Mount of Olives in East Jerusalem.

"Today" comes early five times a week for Jim Hartz, co-host with Barbara Walters of NBC's morning show, and the former evening newscast-er-who used to compute er—who used to commute from Huntington, L.I.—has moved with his wife and three children to a five-story house in the East 70's. The

John M. Doar

Terry F. Lenzner

George Beall

34-year-old native of Oklaho-ma, where, he began his ca-reer in 1962, bought the house from Richard D. Hall at a price recorded at $306,000. 0

A professor of history at Connecticut College in New London, Dr. Philip Harding Jordan Jr., will become pres-ident of Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, on July 1. Dr. Jordan, 443, a Princeton University graduate with a Ph.D. from Yale University, will succeed Dr. William G. Caples, who is retiring. 0

His mother came from Ire-land's County Sligo and his father from County Carlow, and yesterday Police Com-missioner Michael J. Codd-who was born in Staten Island and lives in Queens-was announced as grand marshal of the city's 213th annual St. Patrick's Day pa-rade on Monday, March 17. 0

John W. Dean 3d, who has been saying he would cancel a nine-week lecture tour if criticism continued over his approximately $175,000, in fees, notified his agent yes-terday that he had postponed three Middle West appear-ances because of the illness of his mother-in-law. The for-mer White House counsel said he was returning to his mother-in-law. The former White House counsel said he was returning to his Califorwas returning to his Califor-nia home for the rest of the week.

Sarah Churchill, 60-year-old daughter of the late Sir Winston Churchill, was Sir Winston Churchill, was named in a suit for $100,000 filed by a Long Island Art gallery Tuesday in Brooklyn Federal Court. She reneged, the suit charged, on a writ-ten proimse—in return for a $1,000 down-payment — to sell exclusive rights to turn her paintings into litho-graphs to the National Art Auction Gallery, Inc., of Plainview. The suit also named Graphics House of Englishtown, N. J., as a de-fendant. The former actress, who lives here and in Lon-don, worked with Graphics House last year to turn out a series of lithographs from her paintings. paintings.

Running a 104-degree fever, Running a 104-degree fever, with influenza, Senator Mike Mansfield entered Bethesda Naval Hospital yesterday. Aides say that the Montana Democrat, who will be 72 next month, had not looked well since a weekend visit to Mexico and would be better off at the hospital since his wife was out of town.

0

Jack Benny converted his jokes about pinching pennies into at least $4-million worth of real estate and personal property, according to documents filed in a Los Angeles court Tuesday by Mary Livingstone Benny, widow of the comedian who died in December.

0

"The largest mass wed-ding in history" has been announced by the Rev. Sun Myung Moon for Saturday in Seoul, South Korea — 1,600 couples, some from the United States and Europe as well as Japan and Korea. It would be more than twice as many as he married in the same indoor arena in 1970. Some Japanese par-ents have "strongly objected" that the evangelist's Unifi-cation Church chose the spouses. But a spokesman, according to Seoul Radio, said the marriages were with according to Seoul Radio, said the marriages were with "full consent by the couples, who have been allowed to meet two or three times be-fore making their decisions." LAURIE JOHNSTON

THE