

APR 15 1975

U.S. High Court Suspends Ehrlichman

Washington

The Supreme Court yesterday suspended convicted Watergate defendant John D. Ehrlichman from practicing before the high court.

The court acted after it had been notified by the California State Bar that Ehrlichman had been suspended in the state Supreme Court.

The order by the federal tribunal gave Ehrlichman 40 days to say why he should not be disbarred.

United Press