

SFChronicle

APP 22 1975

McCord Appeal Rejected

Washington

The Supreme Court refused yesterday to review the conviction of James W. McCord, one of the men arrested during the Watergate burglary in 1972.

The court let stand a unanimous decision of the U. S. Court of Appeals here upholding a federal court jury's verdict of guilty on charges of burglary, conspiracy and wiretapping.

Associated Press