

Back to Prison

E. Howard Hunt, a Watergate burglar, said good-bye to a little friend in Miami before going to the minimum security prison at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida. She was Judy Artime, 4, daughter of Manuel Artime, Cuban exile leader and an old friend of Hunt. Hunt already has spent nine months in Danbury, Conn., and Allenwood, Pa., federal prisons. He will be eligible for parole in 1977. Hunt's home is in Miami.
