WASHINGTON, June 23 (UPI)—The Supreme Court today accepted the resignation of Richard M. Nixon as lawyer entitled to practice before the Court.

In a letter dated June 10, the former President told the Court he was "not intending to practice law in the future."

The Court's brief order today said: "The motion of Richard M. Nixon of San Clemente, Calif., to resign as a member of the bar of this Court is granted and it is ordered that his name be stricken from the roll of attorneys admitted to practice before the bar of this Court."

Mr. Nixon was admitted to the Supreme Court bar on March 14, 1947, while he was serving the first of two terms as a Representative of California's 12th District in Congress.

In his letter from La Casa Pacifica in San Clemente, Mr. Nixon said: "Not having practiced law for several years, and not intending to practice law in the future, I desire to and hereby resign from the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, of which I am currently a member. Sincerely yours, Richard M. Nixon."

Justices William O. Douglas and William H. Rehnquist did not participate in the Court's action on the resignation.
