

Holtzman Wants Report

A member of the House Judiciary Committee has asked Watergate Special Prosecutor Henry S. Ruth Jr. to report to Congress about "serious questions that remain unanswered" in the nation's worst political scandal.

Rep. Elizabeth Holtzman (D-N.Y.), a member of the committee that conducted the impeachment inquiry of President Nixon last year, asked Ruth to advise the panel's criminal justice subcommittee on the status of all investigations in progress.

"There are serious questions about possible liability that remain publicly unanswered," she said in a letter to Ruth. The letter was sent to Ruth after the third and final Watergate grand jury was dismissed Thursday. 3 JUL

She listed the 18½-minute gap in a key White House tape recording, the deletions in the White House transcripts delivered to the committee, the alleged White House wiretaps of reporters and presidential aides, the alleged sale of ambassadorships and the alleged $100,000 contribution from billionaire Howard Hughes to Nixon's friend C. G. (Bebe) Rebozo.
