Notes on People

Ford Has a Birthday, A Physical and Party

A C 11Y SICA. President Ford, who said he felt "about 40," celebrat-ed his 62d birthday yester-day. He began the day with a 35-minute physical exam-ination in his White House study and went on to a sur-prise party in the East Room. The comedian Filp Wilson, who spent the morning visit-the a community of the el-derly poor with the Presi-derly poor with the Presi-dent's wife, Betty, appeared at the surprise party in his role of Geraldine. Dressed as a nurse, Mr. Wilson gave a humorous ac-count of the President's phy-sical and referred to Mr. Ford as "the main man." He called Mrs. Ford "first mama." And he announced that the Government had had solved the problem of solved the problem of the President stumbling on the steps of his plane, Air Force One, by installing an eleva-tor. After the President's physi-

One, by installing an eleva-tor. After the President's physi-cal examination, his personal physician, Dr. William Luk-ash, said he had found Mr. Ford "physically fit" with the results of the laboratory test completely normal.

medical checkup and was questioned about his ordeal. The Army said Colonel Mor-gan had been taken to Ger-many "because it was con-sidered more appropriate" than for him to remain in Ankara, Turkey, his regular assignment. Colonel Morgan, 43, was kidnapped on June 29 when he stopped overnight in Bei-rut on his way back to An-kara from a meeting in Pakistan. He was taken from a taxicab during the street fighting between leftist Mos-lems and rightist Christians. He was released Saturday. He was released Saturday. .

Former President Richard M. Nixon, barefoot and accompanied by three mem-bers of his family, signed autographs and posed for sapshots on a beach at Camp Pendleton, Calif., the huge Marine Corps installa-tion near his San Clemente home. Clad in slacks and a dark jacket bearing the Presi-dential seal, Mr. Nixon strolled along the beach for an hour with his wife Pat, his daughter Tricia and her husband, Edward F. Cox. Former President Richard

Richard M. Nixon greeting Brenda Waterman of Torrance, Calif., and a friend while taking a stroll Saturday on a beach at Camp Pendleton, Calif. 12 JUL