NBC Terminates Talks

For Memoirs of Nixon

NYTimes

NBC News announced yesterday that it had terminated negotiations for the exclusive television rights to the written memoirs of Richard M. Nixon, which would have included extensive interviews with the former President.

Richard C. Wald, president of NBC News, said that his organization had withdrawn from the negotiations because Irving Lazar, Mr. Nixon's agent, "was entering discussions with others who evidently were prepared to pay more for the rights and might be more compatible with the former President's wishes."

Mr. Lazar had indicated that several independent television companies were interested in obtaining rights for purposes of syndcating the programs to individual stations.

CBS News and ABC News had rejected the offer to interview Mr. Nixon for a fee.
