

A New Nixon Library

Two Whittier College graduates have paid $25,000 for the former La Habra, Calif., law offices of fellow alumnus Richard Nixon and plan to turn them into a Nixon library.

Donald L. Bendetti and John Barr plan to spend another $25,000 to restore the building in which the former President practiced law from 1939 to 1943. Bendetti, a long-time Nixon supporter, Personalities

said "My main motivation is that everybody has a chance to read both sides of the Nixon story, not just the bad things which have been reported."

Familiar Voice

Buff's of radio's Metropolitan Opera broadcasts sponsored by Texaco will be hearing a more or less familiar voice when the programs start again next season.

Jeanette Smyth