

WXPost AUG. 24 1975

WALTER SCOTT'S Personality Parade

Want the facts? Want to learn the truth about prominent personalities? Want informed opinion? Write to Walter Scott, Personality Parade, P.O. Box 10017, New York, N.Y. 10017. Your full name will be used unless otherwise requested. Volume of mail

Q. Friends in Seattle tell me that John Ehrlichman, convicted of conspiracy to obstruct justice in the Watergate scandal, has sold his novel. Is it true? Can you provide any details?—Frank Lewis, Portland, Oreg.

A. John Ehrlichman's novel, tentatively entitled "The Commissioner," has been accepted for publication by Simon & Schuster. Ehrlichman's novel is disguised autobiography, deals with his White House years under Richard Nixon.

Reportedly Ehrlichman received a $30,000 advance.

also one of the leading Communists in Mexico, urged by Moscow during the Spanish Civil War.

Q. It is difficult for me to believe that William Ruckelshaus, former chief of the Environmental Protection Agency and the "Mr. Clean" of the Nixon administration, is defending a company that manufactures vinyl chloride, a substance that causes cancer. Is this true?—T. Milch, Indianapolis, Ind.

A. William Ruckelshaus is a lawyer with the Society of the Plastics Industry. He is the best legal advice that you can get and his law partners

Q. What is this about the Andress? Rome? And say about the tiny, Ne-