

Organization Bill
WXPost SEP 12 1975
Nixon Papers Vote

By voice vote the Senate demanded the redrafting of rules that someday may govern access to former President Nixon's documents and tapes.

The Government Operations Committee, unhappy with 11 of some 50 provisions, had rejected the entire set of proposed regulations and recommended that the General Services Administration resubmit all of them by Oct. 10.

Disapproval by either house of Congress was enough to send the rules back.

IRS Auditing