

SFChronicle NOV. 13 1975

Magruder's Big Legal Expenses

Indianapolis

Jeb Start Magruder, former No. 2 man on the Committee to Re-elect the President, says the profits from his book "One Man's Road to Watergate" have been eaten up by legal expenses.

"It's still a little difficult for me to understand why it cost $100,000 to plead guilty," Magruder told a group of Indianapolis businessmen Tuesday.

United Press
