

Notes on People

THE NEW YORK TIMES, W

NYTimes

DEC 10 1975

NYTimes DEC 10 1975
 Richard M. Nixon brought along a valise full of ham and cheese sandwiches for his golf foursome Monday in La Jolla, Calif. In his second visit to the San Diego area in a couple of months, the former President played 18 holes "in the low 90's," according to Pascal Dilday, a local car dealer. The other players were Herb Klein, Mr. Nixon's former communications director, and Jack Brennan, former military aide.

* 8 DEC

United Press International

Richard M. Nixon in La Jolla, Calif., yesterday. At right is Pascal Dilday, one of three men who played an 18-hole round of golf with the former President.