

AP Wirephoto

A Chinese New Year

^{28 DEC}
David and Julie Eisenhower left Tokyo last night after an overnight stay. They were headed for Peking, where they will spend New Year's and at least a week beyond. They had been invited by Premier Chou En-lai when Julie's father, then President Nixon, visited China in 1972. The Eisenhowers had spent Christmas with the Nixons in San Clemente.