

SF Chronicle JAN 28 1976

Pat Nixon May

Try to Sell House In Key Biscayne

Key Biscayne

Pat Nixon, wife of former President Nixon, spent the day at the Nixon Key Biscayne home yesterday amid speculation she is trying to sell the vacation retreat.

Mrs. Nixon arrived at Miami International Airport Monday and was taken immediately to the Nixon compound, where she was met by Nixon confidant and neighbor C.G. (Bebe) Rebozo.

26 JAN

It was the first time Mrs. Nixon has left California since her husband resigned as President in August, 1974. They have been living at the family home in San Clemente.

The Nixons' Key Biscayne home has been rumored up for sale for several months.

United Press