

'Plumber' Becomes Ice Cream Man

The head of the White House "plumbers" during the Watergate scandal is going into the ice cream business with San Francisco's Swensen's Ice Cream Co., it was announced yesterday.

Egil (Bud) Krogh Jr. will become a coordinator of home office administration and franchise store services for Swensen's, the San Francisco-based firm that operates 102 stores in 14 states, the District of Columbia and Mexico.

"Everything I saw or read about him led me to believe he was an unfortunate victim of the terrible circumstances surrounding the downfall of the Nixon administration," said Swensen's president William A.

le7erin the compan7 announcement of Krogh's new job.

Krogh resigned a year-long job

EGIL KROGH JR.
A job with Swensen's

as a legislative assistant for Congressman Paul N. McCloskey Jr. (Re-Palo Alto) to take the ice cream company.